3 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

4 COME NOW, Plaintiffs, individuals over the age of eighteen (18), and bring this 5 challenge to defendant's lucrative, repressive and unlawful business practices on behalf of 6 themselves and a class of all others similarly situated and for a Cause of Action against
7 defendants, COMMONWEALTH PARTNERS MANAGEMENT, LLC, and DOES 1-100,
8 inclusive, (hereinafter defendants) and each of them, alleges as follows:

9 THE PARTIES, JURISDICTION AND VENUE

10 1.

11 This class action is brought pursuant to §382 of the California Code of Civil Procedure.
12 The claims of individual class members, including Plaintiff, are under the $75,000 jurisdictional
13 threshold for federal court. For example, a class member who was or has been employed for a 14 relatively brief period could never reasonably be expected to receive a recovery of $75,000 or 15 more. The total damages for the entire case does not exceed $5,000,000.00. Further there is no
16 federal question at issue, as all the issues related to payment wages alleged herein are based 17 solely on California law and statutes, including the Labor Code, Civil Code, Code of Civil 18 Procedure, and Business and Professions Code.

19 2.

20 Plaintiff, Jesus Rivas ("Plaintiff") brings this action against COMMONWEALTH
21 PARTNERS MANAGEMENT, LLC, for engaging in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of 22 wage abuse against their hourly paid employees in California. This scheme involved, inter alia, 23 failing to pay hourly employees all wages earned for all hours worked. As a result of 24 Defendant's systematic and clandestine scheme of failing to properly pay their hourly employees
25 wages for all hours worked in their California Spa. COMMONWEALTH PARTNERS
26 MANAGEMENT, LLC has violated California common and statutory laws as described more 27 particularly below.

COMMONWEALTH PARTNERS MANAGEMENT, LLC is a Spa in the United States, and has a property location in San Francisco, California with a team of approximately 40 hourly spa and wellness workers.

Venue is proper in this county under California Business and Professions Code §17203 and California Code of Civil Procedure §§395(a) and 395.5. COMMONWEALTH PARTNERS MANAGEMENT, LLC operates its spa in San Francisco, California, and employs at least 35-40 persons in the State of California. Further, Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that many of the centralized policies and procedures and conduct complained about herein emanated from and occurred at Defendant's business in San Francisco County.

5.

The Defendant is within the jurisdiction of this Court. COMMONWEALTH PARTNERS MANAGEMENT, LLC operates a spa in San Francisco County. Thus, Defendant has obtained the benefits of the laws of the State of California and the California business markets.

Plaintiff Jesus Rivas ("Mr. Rivas") was a California resident at all pertinent times herein who worked within four years from the filing of the complaint, at the San Francisco, California COMMONWEALTH PARTNERS MANAGEMENT, LLC location. During his employment as an hourly employee, Defendant required Mr. Rivas to work time off-the-clock for which he was never paid and work overtime for which he was never paid. Mr. Rivas was denied mandated meal and rest breaks, denied minimum wage, incurred expenditures and losses in direct consequence of the discharge of his duties for which he was not indemnified and was not

2 provided with credit for vested vacation time, sick time, nor has he accrued the requisite sick
3 leave throughout his time employed at COMMONWEALTH PARTNERS MANAGEMENT,
4 LLC as required under the law.

7 The true names and capacities, whether is individual, corporate, associate, representative,
8 or otherwise, of Defendants named herein as DOES 1 through 100 are unknown to Plaintiffs at 9 this time, and they are therefore sued by such fictitious names pursuant to California Code of 10 Civil Procedure §474. Plaintiffs will amend this Complaint to allege the true names and 11 capacities of DOES 1 through 100 when Plaintiff knows them. Each of DOES 1 through 100 is 12 in some manner legally responsible for the violations of law alleged herein.

14 8.

15 The acts charged in this Complaint as having been done by Defendant was authorized,
16 ordered, or done by their officers, agents, employees, or representatives, while actively engaged
17 in the management of the Defendant's businesses or affairs.

18 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

20 9.

21 Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and as a class action on behalf of all
22 persons similarly situated pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure §382, Civil Code
23 §1781, and the procedural provisions of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure as they 24 have been adopted for use, referenced, and interpreted by this State's courts. Plaintiff seeks to 25 represent and to certify the following class:

26 All current and former hourly paid employees of COMMONWEALTH
27 PARTNERS MANAGEMENT, LLC in San Francisco, California from 28 four years preceding the filing of this Complaint ("the Class").

2 The Class excludes Defendant, its subsidiaries, affiliates, dealers, officers, directors,
3 members of Defendant's affiliates, officers, dealers' and directors' immediate families, any
4 entities in which Defendant has a controlling interest, and the officers, directors, affiliates, legal 5 representatives, heirs, successors and/or assigns of any of the individuals or entities mentioned in 6 this paragraph, and any judge assigned to hear this action.

9 This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action pursuant 10 to California Code of Civil Procedure §382, Civil Code §1781, as well as under Federal Rule of 11 Civil Procedure 23(a)(1)-(4), 23 (b)(1), (2), or (3), and case law there under, to which the 12 California trial courts have been directed by the California Supreme Court to look for guidance.

14 11.

15 Plaintiff believes there are over 40 presently and formerly employed hourly-paid
16 COMMONWEALTH PARTNERS MANAGEMENT, LLC hourly employees in the Class.
17 Given Defendant's size and the systematic nature of Defendant's failure to comply with 18 California employment law and common law, the members of the Class are so numerous that 19 joinder of all members is impractical.

21 12.

22 Plaintiffs' claims are typical of the claims of the members of the Class because they were 23 hourly employees who, like the members of the Class, were impacted by the conduct complained
24 of herein and sustained damages and other loss arising out of the Defendant's campaign to fail to 25 properly compensate them for all hours worked, and failure to properly maintain accurate records
26 of the actual hours and/or days worked by Plaintiffs and the members of the Class. Defendant
27 required the class to work time off-the-clock for which they were never paid and work overtime
28

2 for which they were never paid. The class was denied mandated meal and rest breaks, denied
3 minimum wage, incurred expenditures and losses in direct consequence of the discharge of their
4 duties for which they were not indemnified and were not provided with credit for vested vacation
5 time, sick time, nor did they accrue the requisite sick leave throughout their time employed at 6 COMMONWEALTH PARTNERS MANAGEMENT, LLC as required under the law.

9 Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class members. Plaintiffs
10 have retained counsel competent and experienced in complex, class action litigation.
11

12 14.

13 Common questions of law and fact exist as to all members of the Class and predominate
14 over any questions solely affecting individual members of the Class. Among the questions of law
15 and fact common to Plaintiffs and the Class are:

16 a. Whether Defendant has engaged in a pattern and/or practice in California
17 of failing to properly compensate the Plaintiffs and the Class for all hours worked;

18 b. Whether Defendant has engaged in a pattern and/or practice in California
19 of encouraging Plaintiffs and the Class not to report all time worked;

20 c. Whether Defendant has engaged in a pattern and/or practice in California
21 of threatening Plaintiffs and the Class with discharge, demotion, or discrimination or otherwise
22 intimidating them if they do not work off-the-clock;

23 d. Whether Defendant failed to keep true and accurate time records for all
24 hours worked by its employees and/or improperly altered time records;

25 e. Whether Defendant failed to pay Plaintiffs and the Class for the work
26 Defendant required them to perform;
27
28

2 f. Whether Defendant violated Cal. Lab. Code §§ 1194 et seq., 1197, 1198,
3 §510, §512, §551, §552, §§201-203, §§226, 226.7; 227.3.

4 g. Whether Defendant violated California Industrial Welfare Commission
5 Orders;

7 h. Whether Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to restitution under Cal. Bus.
8 & Prof. Code §17200 et seq.

9 i. The nature and extent of class-wide injury and the measure of damages for 10 the injury, and;

11 j. Whether the Class is entitled to injunctive relief.

12 k. Whether Defendant violated Chapter 12W.3. and 4: Sick Leave

14 15.

15 A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication
16 of this controversy for the following reasons:

17 a. A class action is the only available method for the fair and efficient
18 adjudication of this controversy. The members of the Plaintiffs' Class are so numerous that 19 joinder of all members is, at a minimum, impractical, and probably impossible.

20 b. The damages suffered by individual Class members are relatively small 21 compared to the expense and burden of prosecuting this complex case against a well-financed
22 corporation. Consequently, this class action is the only way that every Class member can redress
23 the harm and damage caused by Defendant's conduct.

24 c. Should this Court require individual Class members to bring separate 25 actions, this Court would face a multiplicity of lawsuits, which would unduly burden both the 26 California court system and the litigants. The prosecution of separate actions will create a risk of 27
28

2 inconsistent rulings and contradictory judgments which might dispose of other Class members'
3 interests who are not parties to the adjudication, thereby impeding and impairing Class members'
4 ability to protect their interests. Inconsistent results will magnify the delay and expense to all
5 parties and to the California court system. By contrast, this class action presents far fewer 6 management difficulties while providing unitary adjudication, economies of scale and 7 comprehensive supervision by a single court.

10 In the alternative, this action is certifiable under the provisions of Rule 23(b)(1)(2) and/or 11 (b)(2) of the Federal Rule of Civil Procedure, which have been found applicable to the State of 12 California, because:

13 a. The prosecution of separate actions by individual Class members will 14 create a risk of inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual Class members
15 which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendant;
16

17 b. The prosecution of separate actions by individual Class members will 18 create a risk of adjudications with respect to the Class which might, as a practical matter, be 19 dispositive of the interests of other Class members not parties to the adjudications, or 20 substantially impair other Class members' ability to protect their interests; and 21

22 c. Defendant has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to 23 the Class thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief with respect to all Class members.
24

25 17.

26 A class action will cause an orderly and expeditious administration of the claims of the 27 Class. Economies of time, effort and expense will be fostered and uniformity of decisions will be 28 insured.

Plaintiff anticipates little, if any, difficulty in the management of this litigation.

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

19.

Defendant offered the Plaintiff and each Class member employment as hourly paid employees ("Associates"), which each Plaintiffs and Class member accepted, thereby entering into an employment relationship governed by the California Labor Code and its implementing regulations and orders.

20.

At the time Plaintiff and members of the Class accepted employment with Defendant, they were expressly told the rate they would earn for each hour worked.

21.

One of COMMONWEALTH PARTNERS MANAGEMENT, LLC's largest expenses is the payroll of its hourly employees. A basis for COMMONWEALTH PARTNERS MANAGEMENT, LLC's profitability is its creation and implementation of a uniform policy and system that requires hourly employees to work hours for which COMMONWEALTH PARTNERS MANAGEMENT, LLC will not compensate them at its San Francisco, California Spa.

22.

Beginning at a date unknown to Plaintiff, but at least as early as four years preceding the filing of this Complaint, Defendant committed, and continues to commit, acts of wage abuse against their hourly-paid employees by failing to properly compensate COMMONWEALTH

2 PARTNERS MANAGEMENT, LLC 's hourly employees for all hours worked at its San
3 Francisco, California spa.

5 23.

6 Defendant has a clandestine program of failing to pay its hourly employees for all hours
7 worked, fails to pay hourly employees overtime, and employees work hours without pay.
8 Defendant fails to properly maintain accurate records of the actual hours and/or days worked by 9 employees. Defendant required the class to work time off-the-clock for which they were never 10 paid and work overtime for which they were never paid. Plaintiff and the Class were denied 11 mandated meal and rest breaks, denied minimum wage, incurred expenditures and losses in 12 direct consequence of the discharge of their duties for which they were not indemnified and were 13 not provided with credit for vested vacation time, sick time, nor did they accrue the requisite sick
14 leave throughout their time employed at COMMONWEALTH PARTNERS MANAGEMENT,
15 LLC as required under the law.

17 24.

18 Defendant COMMONWEALTH PARTNERS MANAGEMENT, LLC has adopted and 19 is using unfair business practices to hold down pay to hourly employees, including the Plaintiffs
20 and the Class. Among these unfair business practices are failure to pay hourly employees for all
21 hours worked as required under California law.

23 25.

24 Defendant's corporate practice is to pay little or no overtime. Defendant
25 COMMONWEALTH PARTNERS MANAGEMENT, LLC meets this cost-saving goal by 26 systematically having employees work hours for which they will not pay including but not 27 limited to work performed while having no active appointments for employees to cover.

9 The Class Period for this cause of action is four years from the filing of the complaint.

10 28.

11 Cal. Lab. Code §1197 provides, "the minimum wage for employees fixed by the 12 commission is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a less wage than 13 the minimum so fixed is unlawful."

14 29.

15 Cal. Lab. Code §1194 provides in relevant part that any employee receiving less than the 16 legal minimum wage applicable to the employee is entitled to recover in a civil action the unpaid
17 balance of the full amount of this minimum wage, including interest thereon, reasonable
18 attorneys' fees, and costs of suit.

19 30.

20 Cal. Lab. Code § 1194.2 provides in relevant part that: "In any action under ... Section 21 1194 to recover wages because of a payment of a wage less than the minimum wage fixed by an 22 order of the commission, an employee shall be entitled to recover liquidated damages in an
23 amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon. "

As alleged herein, Defendant required Plaintiff and the Class members to work without compensating them for all hours worked in violation of California law. By these actions, Defendant violated Cal. Lab.Code § 1197 and is liable to Plaintiff and the Class.

32.

As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendant, Plaintiff and the Class members have been deprived of compensation in amounts to be determined at trial, and are entitled to recovery of such amounts, including interest thereon, attorneys' fees, costs, and any other damages as set forth under California law.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Pay Overtime Wages
Violations of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 510, 1194 et seq., 1198

33.

Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs.

34.

The Class Period for this cause of action is four years from the filing of the complaint.

35.

Cal. Lab. Code §510, "Day's work" provides in relevant part:

Eight hours of labor constitutes a day's work

Any work in excess of eight hours in one workday and any work in excess of 40 hours in anyone workweek and the first eight hours worked on the seventh day of work in anyone workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of 12 hours in one day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight hours on any seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an employee. Nothing in this section requires an employer to combine more than one rate of overtime compensation in order to calculate the amount to be paid to an employee for any hour of overtime work.

Cal. Lab. Code § 1194 provides in relevant part that: "any employee receiving less than the minimum wage or the legal overtime compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney's fees, and costs of suit."

37.

Cal. Lab. Code § 1198 provides in relevant part, "the employment of any employee for longer hours than those fixed by the order or under conditions of labor prohibited by the order is unlawful."

38.

Industrial Welfare Commission Order No. 7-2001(3)(A)(I) provides in relevant part:

[E]mployees shall not be employed more than eight (8) hours in any workday or more than 40 hours in any workweek unless the employee receives one and one-half (1 1/2) times such employee's regular rate of pay for all hours worked over 40 hours in the workweek. Eight (8) hours of labor constitutes a day's work. Employment beyond eight (8) hours in any workday or more than six (6) days in any workweek is permissible provided the employee is compensated for such overtime at not less than:

- (a) One and one-half (1 1/2) times the employees' regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours up to and including 12 hours in any workday, and for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh (7th) consecutive day of work in a workweek; and

(b) Double the employee's regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of 12 hours in any workday and for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh (7th) consecutive day of work in a workweek.

As alleged herein, Defendant required Plaintiffs and Class members to work overtime without receiving overtime compensation for any hours worked over eight per day or forty per week.

40.

By their actions alleged above, Defendant violated the provisions of §§ 510, 1194 and 1198 of the California Labor Code and is liable to Plaintiffs and the Class.

41.

As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendant, Plaintiffs and the Class have been deprived of overtime compensation in amounts to be determined at trial, injunctive relief and are entitled to recovery of such amounts, including interest thereon, attorneys' fees, costs, and penalties.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
Failure to Provide Mandated Meal and Rest Breaks

42.

Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs.

Cal. Lab. Code §226.7(a) provides, "No employer shall require any employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable order of the Industrial Welfare Commission."

45.

Industrial Welfare Commission Order No. 7-2001(11)(c) provides in relevant part, "Unless the employees is relieved of all duty during a 30 minute meal period, the meal period shall be considered an 'on duty' meal period and counted as time worked."

46.

Industrial Welfare Commission Order No. 7-2001 (12)(A) authorizes employees to take rest periods based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten minutes rest per four hours or major fraction thereof.

47.

Cal. Lab. Code Section 512, which provides in relevant part:

Meal periods

An employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee. An employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than 10 hours per day without providing the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than 12 hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

As alleged herein, defendants routinely interrupted and/or failed to permit, authorize and/or provide Plaintiff's and Class members' meal and rest breaks. By these actions, defendants violated Cal. Lab. Code §226.7(a) and is liable to Plaintiff and the Class.

As a result of the unlawful acts of defendants, Plaintiff and Class members have been deprived of meal and rest breaks, and are entitled to recovery under Cal. Lab. Code §226.7(b) in the amount of one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that a meal or rest period was not provided.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Failure to Make Payment Within the Required Time
Violations of Cal. Lab. Code §§201-203, 226

50.

Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs.

51.

The Class Period for this cause of action is four year from the filing of the complaint.

52.

Cal. Lab. Code §201 provides in relevant part, "[i]f an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. "

53.

Cal. Lab. Code §202 provides in relevant part, " [i]f an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits his or his employment, his or his wages shall become due and

2 payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours previous notice
3 of his or his intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or his wages at the 4 time of quitting."

6 54.

7 As alleged herein, Defendant failed to pay earned wages to Plaintiff and the Class who
8 are former employees of COMMONWEALTH PARTNERS MANAGEMENT, LLC at the time
9 they became due and payable. Thus, Defendant violated Cal. Lab. Code §§201 and 202.

10 55.

11 As a result of Defendant's unlawful acts, Plaintiff and the Class who are former 12 employees of COMMONWEALTH PARTNERS MANAGEMENT, LLC are entitled to 13 recover, pursuant to Cal. Lab. Code §203, continuing wages as a penalty from the due date
14 thereof at the same rate until paid or until this action was commenced; but for no more than 30
15 days.
16

17 56.

18 In addition, Cal. Lab. Code §226(a) provides in relevant part that "Every employer shall 19 furnish each of his or his employees ... an itemized statement in writing showing ... total hours
20 worked by the employee ... and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the 21 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee." Cal. Lab. Code
22 §226(b) then provides in relevant part: "Any employee suffering injury as a result of a knowing
23 and intentional failure by an employer to comply with subdivision (a) shall be entitled to recover
24 the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a 25 violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a subsequent 26 pay period, not exceeding an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000) and shall be
27
28

2 entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorney's fees." Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to 3 recover accordingly.

5 57.

6 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
7 Failure to Make Payment for Vested Vacation
8 Time on Termination of Employment Under Cal. Lab § 227.3

9 Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation set forth in 10 the preceding paragraphs.

11 58.

12 The Class Period for this cause of action is four years from the filing of the complaint.

13 59.

14 Labor Code Section 227.3 provides:

15 Unless otherwise provided by a collective-bargaining agreement,
16 whenever a contract of employment or employer policy provides for 17 paid vacations, and an employee is terminated without having taken
18 off his vested vacation time, all vested vacation shall be paid to him 19 as wages at his final rate in accordance with such contract of 20 employment or employer policy respecting eligibility or time served;
21 provided, however, that an employment contract or employer policy
22 shall not provide for forfeiture of vested vacation time upon
23 termination. The Labor Commissioner or a designated
24 representative, in the resolution of any dispute with regard to vested
25 vacation time, shall apply the principles of equity and fairness.

26 60.

27 As alleged herein, Defendants failed to provide for all vested vacation time which is to be 28 paid in accordance with Labor Code Section 227.3. Plaintiff and the Class members were not provided with payment at their final rate in accordance with their contract of employment and therefore lost vested vacation time when employees ceased employment or were terminated by employer. By these actions, Defendants violated Labor Code Section 227.3 and is liable to Plaintiff and the class.

As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants, Plaintiff and the Class members have been deprived of compensation in amounts to be determined at trial, and are entitled to recovery of such amounts, including interest thereon, attorneys' fees, costs, and any other damages as set forth under California Law.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Unfair Competition
Violations of Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §17200 et seq.

63.

Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs.

64.

The Class period for this cause of action is four years from the filing of the complaint.

65.

~~Section 17200 of the California Business & Professions Code prohibits any unlawful, unfair, or fraudulent business acts or practice.~~

66.

As used in this Complaint and in §17200, "unfair competition" means an unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice. This conduct is actionable pursuant to Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, 17203.

67.

Through the actions alleged herein, Defendant has engaged in unfair competition within the meaning of Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200, because Defendant's conduct has violated state wage and hour laws and the California common law as herein described. Indeed, Defendant's conduct as herein alleged has damaged Plaintiff and the Class by wrongfully denying them earned wages and therefore was substantially injurious to Plaintiff and the Class.

68.

Beginning at a date unknown to Plaintiff, but at least as early as four years preceding the filing of this lawsuit, Defendant committed, and continues to commit, acts of unfair competition, as defined by § 17200 et seq. of the California Business and Professions Code, by, among other things, engaging in the acts and practices described above.

69.

Defendant engaged in unfair competition in violation of Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200 et seq. by violating, inter alia, each of the following, each of which constitutes an independent and separate violation of Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200 et seq.:

- a. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked;
- b. Cal. Lab. Code §§201,202, 204 et seq.;
- c. Cal. Lab. Code §§226, 226.7;
- d. Cal. Lab. Code §510;
- e. Cal. Lab. Code Section 512;
- f. Cal. Lab. Code §551, which provides that "[e]very person employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day's rest there from in seven."
- g. Cal. Lab. Code §552, which provides that "No employer of labor shall

2 cause his employees to work more than six days in seven."

3 h. Cal. Lab. Code § 1182.11, which provides the minimum wage for all
4 industries;

5 i. Cal. Lab. Code § 1194 et seq.;

6 j. Cal. Lab. Code § 1197, 1198;

7 k. Cal. Lab. Code § 2802;

8 l. Cal. Lab. Code § 227.3; and

9 m. California Industrial Welfare Commission Order

10 n. Chapter 12W.3. and 4: Sick Leave
11

12 70.

13 Defendants' course of conduct, acts, and practices in violation of the California laws
14 mentioned in each paragraph above constitute a separate and independent violation of §17200, et 15 seq., of the California Business and Professions Code.
16

17 71.

18 ~~The harm to Plaintiff and the Class in being wrongfully denied lawfully earned wages~~
19 outweighs the utility, if any, of Defendant's policy/practices and, therefore, Defendant's actions
20 described herein constitute an unfair business practice or act within the meaning of California
21 Business and Professions Code §17200.
22

23 72.

24 Defendant's conduct described herein constitutes an incipient violation of state wage and
25 hour laws and the California and/or violates the policy or spirit of such laws or otherwise
26 significantly threatens or harms competition.

73.

Defendant's course of conduct also violates Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200 in that it is fraudulent and improper.

74.

The unlawful, unfair, and fraudulent business practices and acts of Defendants, and each of them, as described above, have injured Plaintiff and members of the Class in that they were wrongfully denied the payment of all wages owed as required under California law.

75.

Pursuant to Business and Professions Code § 17203, the Court may impose injunctive relief against any conduct found to constitute unfair competition pursuant to Business and Professions Code § 17200. The court may also make such orders or judgments, including the appointment of a receiver, as may be necessary to prevent the use or employment by any person of any practice which constitutes unfair competition, or as may be necessary to restore to any person in interest any money or property, real or personal, which may have been acquired by means of such unfair competition.

76.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Failure to Abide by San Francisco's
Chapter 12W.3 and 12W.4: Sick Leave Ordinance

Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs.

77.

The Class Period for this cause of action is three years from the filing of the complaint.

78.

San Francisco's Sick Leave Ordinance at Chapter 12W.3. Accrual of Paid Sick Leave provides:

2 (a) For employee working for an employer on or before the operative date
3 of this Chapter, paid sick leave shall begin to accrue as of the operative
4 date of this Chapter. For employees hired after the operative date of this 5 Chapter, paid sick leave shall begin to accrue 90 days after the 6 commencement of employment with the employer.

7 (b) For every 30 hours worked after paid sick leave begins to accrue for an 8 employee, the employee shall accrue one hour of paid sick leave. Paid
9 sick leave shall accrue only in hour-unit increments; there shall be no
10 accrual of a fraction of an hour of paid sick leave.

11 San Francisco's Sick Leave Ordinance at Chapter 12W.4. Use of Paid Sick
12 Leave Provides:

13 (a) An employee may use paid sick leave not only when he or she is ill or 14 injured or for the purpose of the employee's receiving medical care,
15 treatment, or diagnosis, as specified more fully in California Labor Code
16 Section 223(b)(4), but also to aid or care for the following persons when 17 they are ill or injured or receiving medical care, treatment, or diagnosis:
18 Child; parent; legal guardian or ward; sibling; grandparent; grandchild;
19 and spouse etc.

20 79.

21 As alleged herein, Defendants failed to credit to the Plaintiff and the Class Members all 22 paid sick leave time based on hours worked which would otherwise be accruing as provided by 23 Chapter 12W.3. Plaintiff and the Class Members did not accrue paid sick leave as required
24 under the law. By these actions, Defendants violated San Francisco's Chapter 12W.3 and is 25 liable to Plaintiff and the Class.

26 80.

27 Defendant did not maintain adequate records and documents re: accrual and use of paid
28 sick leave as required by San Francisco's Chapter 12W.3 and is liable to Plaintiff and the Class.

81.

Defendant failed to allow Plaintiff and the class to use paid sick leave that should have accrued based on hours worked as required by San Francisco's Chapter 12W.4 and is liable to Plaintiff and the Class.

As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants, Plaintiff and the Class members have been deprived of paid sick leave and compensation in amounts to be determined at trial, and are entitled to recovery of such amounts, including interest thereon, attorneys' fees, costs, and any other damages as set forth under California Law.

83.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Conversion

Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs.

84.

The Class Period for this cause of action is four years from the filing of the complaint.

85.

At the relevant times herein, Defendants, and each of them, had a legal obligation imposed by statute to properly pay wages owed to Plaintiff and the Class. Defendants promised to pay Plaintiff, all of Plaintiffs earnings due to them and those wages were due under Labor Code section 204 at least twice during each calendar month; under sections 201 and 202, payment must be made immediately for discharged employees or those who quit. Defendants failure to pay overtime wages on the next payday (or, when applicable, immediately) constitutes converting the funds to their own use, thereby depriving Plaintiff of the wages due and owing to them. The wages belonged to Plaintiff at the time the services were provided to Defendants. Accordingly, the wages are and were Plaintiffs property.

86.

Defendants knowingly, willfully and intentionally interfered with Plaintiffs right to own, possess and/or control disposition of said wages. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that they were not paid overtime wages ever, let alone when they were due.

87.

At the time the conversion took place, Plaintiff was entitled to immediate possession of the wages earned said conversion was oppressive, malicious and fraudulent and was concealed by the Defendants, and each of them, from the named Plaintiff and all others similarly situated, as hereinafter alleged. Defendants wrongfully converted the earned wages of Plaintiff as Defendants' monies. Defendants' action constituting conversion was oppressive, malicious and fraudulent, and was concealed by the Defendants, and each of them, from the named Plaintiff as herein before alleged. Plaintiff has been injured by Defendants' oppressive, malicious, intentional and fraudulent actions entitling Plaintiff to punitive and/or exemplary damages.
