Action Claims;

6. All Class Members shall be bound by all determinations and judgments in this litigation concerning the settlement.
7. Any Member of the Class may enter an appearance in the Litigation, at his or her own expense, individually or through counsel of his or her own choice. If they do not enter an appearance or exclude themselves from the Class (opt out), they will be represented by Class Counsel.
8. Pending final determination of whether the settlement should be approved, neither the Representative Plaintiff(s), nor any Class Member, either directly, representatively or in any other capacity, shall commence or prosecute Defendant or any of the Released Parties, any action or proceeding in any court or tribunal asserting any of the Released Claims. From the date of preliminary approval through the date of the hearing on final approval, Class Members who submit valid and timely claims and who do not exclude themselves from the Settlement Class shall be prohibited from filing any complaints with the California Department of Labor Standards Enforcement or from initiating any other proceedings regarding the released claims.
9. Any Class Member who wishes to be excluded (opt out) from the Class and not participate in the proposed settlement must comply with the exclusion (opt out) procedures set forth in the Stipulation and Settlement of Class Action Claims;
10. Any Member of the Class may appear and show cause, if he or she has any, why the proposed settlement of the Litigation should or should not be approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate, or why a judgment should or should not be entered thereon, or why attorneys' fees should or should not be awarded to Class Counsel; provided, however, that no Class Member or any other person shall be heard or entitled to contest the approval of the terms and conditions of the proposed settlement, or, if approved, the Judgment to be entered thereon
