

All California based salaried station employees also described by Defendants as Profit Center Managers, who worked at any time during the four years preceding the filing of this Complaint up until the date of class certification at any station in the State of California owned, operated and/or acquired by defendants.